Background

Technology is becoming fast growing. Many people and businesses within the community are using technology to aid them in the everyday things they do. Desktop Publishing, The Internet and Multimedia are becoming an important part of everyday life. This assessment task will involve you using all three software applications to search the internet on a topic, produce a publication of some description using Microsoft Publisher, and then design and create a slide show using the software Microsoft Power Point on the chosen topic you have selected.
